A VERY SLICK MAN.

PETER SEITZ, OF PLEASANT GREEN, FLIES FROM JUSTICE.

He Succeeds in Victimizing Sedalia Merchants to the Extent of About $1,000--He Disappears.

About a year ago, a German named Peter Seitz showed up at Pleasant Green and for quite a time pursued the work of a stone mason. He stated that his former home was Warrensburg and by his oily methods succeeded in establishing himself reasonably well in the good graces of quite a number of the unsuspicious citizens of that little country town.

A destructive fire burned up considerable of the business portion of Pleasant Green several months ago and, of course, left vacancies in the number of business houses. Seitz concluded that this was a good time to start a store, and set about planning to secure a stock. As Sedalia was the nearest wholesale town of any importance, he decided to make his arrangements with her merchants for goods to stock a general country store.

On the 16th of March he visited the wholesale clothing manufacturers, J. A. Lamy & Co., No. 112 West Main street, and the wholesale grocery house of S. H. Beiler & Co., No. 214 West Main street. To these gentlemen he stated his intention of starting a first-class general store and desired to negotiate with them for a stock. He had no ready cash at the time, but represented himself as possessing considerable real estate in Warrensburg, and also in Iowa, the value of which was between $4,000 and $5,000. He desired to secure a loan on this with which to buy his stock. His statements were made with such a good face that arrangements were finally made and Mr. Peter Seitz departed for home with about $1,000 worth of goods, the amount being nearly equally divided between the two firms.

After the goods had been shipped Gus. Lamy began to grow a little uneasy, and commenced investigating. He was more than surprised to find that Seitz had no property, either in Warrensburg or Iowa. In the former place his reputation was anything but good.

He was represented as a chronic dead-beat and worthless scamp and owed money to everybody from whom he could borrow, and has unpaid bills in Warrensburg alone amounting to about $500.

Mr. Lamy lost no time in shortening the distance between Sedalia and Pleasant Green. Seitz put on a bold front and appeared much hurt to think that he had been so badly misrepresented. He stoutly denied the charges and emphatically declared that he did own property in both places. He came to Sedalia with Mr. Lamy for the purpose of giving a deed of trust on the Warrensburg property to secure his creditors, saying that the deeds for same were deposited in a bank at that place. Not only did he propose to do this, but, as the business outlook was extremely good in Pleasant Green, he tried to interest Mr. Lamy in helping him to secure a loan on his Iowa property by which he could increase his stock and operate more extensively. His creditors communicated with the Warrensburg bank and found the story told by Seitz to be false in every particular.

This was the beginning of the end, and last Saturday Mr. Lamy, accompanied by Arthur Maltby, of Beiler Grocery Co., went to Pleasant Green. A thorough search failed to locate Mr. Peter Seitz and the fact dawned upon these gentlemen that the bird had flown. They visited his residence and had an interview with his wife who said that her husband had gone to Iowa to look after his property. The creditors had been "talked to" enough and demanded the keys to the store. This was refused, and as a last resort they said they would make a forcible entrance. This produced the keys, and when the store was opened their pockets began to feel very light. About half the stock was left. This was boxed up and immediately shipped back to Sedalia.

A search warrant was secured from a local magistrate and the residence searched. Between bed quilts, under carpets and in almost every conceivable place were found piece goods. To facilitate secretion, the goods had been torn in small lengths and put in every available crevice. Groceries, tobacco, cigars, canned goods, etc., were found in bureau drawers and the cellar. This "broke the camel's back" and the scattered stock was collected and brought to this city.

A warrant is out for the arrest of Seitz carrying him with obtaining goods under false pretenses. He is at large, but the officers are close after him, and he will undoubtedly soon be caught.

Mrs. Seitz came in from Pleasant Green this morning and stated to a gentleman on the train that she was in search of her husband. She went east to St. Louis and if she meets her husband he will probably be in the hands of a certain officer of the law.

A. O. U. W. Can Decorate Sunday.
T. C. Holland, recorder of Amity Lodge No. 69, A. O. U. W., received a letter from Hon. W. H. Miller, G. M. workman in which he says:

"The proposition to decorate the graves of our dead in Sedalia is certainly a most worthy one, and desiring the sympathy of every true workman."

He further states that the decoration of graves is not prohibited by our laws on Sunday or any other day and freely endorses the move the Sedalia workmen have made.

Before Justice Fisher.

Joe Wells, well-known in police circles, was before Justice Fisher this afternoon for assaulting C. S. Moon on May 26th. A change of venue was taken to Justice Blair's court, where the case will be heard next Friday.

Wm. Bibee, the colored chicken thief, was taken before his honor and had the case continued until next Friday.

Prominent Gymnast.

Chas. Gyer, of Lexington, was in town yesterday on his way to New York. Mr. Gyer is a prominent gymnast and tumbler. His brother Charles, who traveled with Sells Bros.' circus, was long recognized as the best in the country. A fall from a table during a performance in which his leg was broken, incapacitated him.

Damage By Water.

Dr. A. V. Small and F. E. Hoffman visited McAlister Springs and found that the rains had done considerable damage there. The bathhouses were floated upon the bank and left high and dry, while the lower side of the pool had been broken away. It will require about $200 to repair the damage.

On a Visit.

Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Faris are in town to attend the wedding of Miss Bessie Daniel and Mr. George Mackey this evening and to enjoy a short visit with their host of friends.

Church Societ.

A very pleasant church sociable took place last night at the elegant home of Mrs. E. T. Brown, No. 1003 East Fifth street, for the benefit of the Baptist church. A large crowd of young people were present and enjoyed themselves immensely.

To Be Sold.

Judge Field in chambers has ordered the sale of the stock of goods formerly owned by D. David. The sale is to be made in bulk to the highest bidder, or if there are no bids T. W. Cloney, the assignee, is to retail it.

Appointed as Substitute.

Dave Dodge entered upon his duties to-day as substitute mail carrier. He will occupy this position until there is a vacancy when he will be made a regular carrier.

Room!

A gentleman wishes to rent for the summer, perhaps longer, a large, well furnished room in private house, without board. Address W., care this paper.

marbles or sleep beneath the shade of the trees.

The DEMOCRAT is requested to call attention to these facts, in order that the cattle may be taken up. They draw flies about the places where they wander, litter the walks, break fences, destroy gardens and flower-beds, and are nuisances generally. There are plenty of pastures, and the cows should be confined to them.

Profitable Industry.

The raising of small fruit is a most profitable industry for those who have land suitable and are within easy reach of the markets. The Nevada Mail gives the following interesting note on the subject:

"Nevada is just getting fairly started in its strawberry harvest. Monday witnessed the heaviest shipments by express, of the present season. The shipments of that day were 720 crates, or 17,280 quarts. If the rains do not interfere, the shipments will be still larger during the present week. Thus far the markets are good; and as Nevada berries are large, firm and fine they always find ready sale."

"Put it in the DEMOCRAT" is the advice which shrewd business men put in practice.

WANT A REHEARING

SUCH IS THE MOTION IN THE NOLAND CASE.

The Defendant Greatly Disappointed at the Finding of the Supreme Court.

Special to the Democrat.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 1.

The decision of the supreme court in the Noland case is still the most absorbing topic in official and society circles here, and many are the expressions of pity and regret that are heard, though few doubt the decision of the court.

Charley Noland, attorney for the defaulting treasurer, came up from St. Louis last night to file a motion for a rehearing in the case. To a reporter he said: "I was greatly surprised at not obtaining a reversal of the case. I was morally certain that such would be the finding of the court. I do not like to criticize the highest court in the state, but I must say that in the opinion rendered the court has ignored the consideration of some of the most vital objections urged by the defense as to the justice of the verdict or the fairness of the trial, and I think that if the court will permit me to argue the motion for a rehearing, I can yet make them see that the case should be reversed and remanded. I have ten days in which to file my motion and I hope good results will follow."

Asked as to how Ed. Noland was affected when told the purport of the decision he said: "Naturally the poor fellow was disappointed. In my own confidence I had led him to think there was no doubt about the decision being favorable to him. Of course he is ready to go to the penitentiary if he must, but I yet hope that he will not be compelled to undergo the dreadful ordeal."

ARREST THE COWS.

Herdsmen Imposing Upon the People Who Live in the Suburbs.

There is no little complaint from people who live in the suburbs about cows foraging upon gardens, flower-beds, etc. There are parties who undertake to herd cattle, and who have no pastures for them. They are mostly boys, and, like boys, they get careless. In consequence the cows are permitted to roam at large while the boys play

Too True.

The Centralia Guard has the following, which is, unfortunately, too true:

"The profession of journalism, like every other, is afflicted with small men, men lacking dignity and character, men of an inferior cast of mind. Such men are unable to live in the profession by following it legitimately, and they quite naturally drift into the disreputable practices of blackmailing and publishing petty slanders on individuals. Such journalists, if such they can be called, assume more airs than others. They always judge from their own standpoint. Fearing an attack on their own past record they naturally rush to an attack upon that of others. They invariably do so by innuendoes and mean insinuations; their littleness makes them too cowardly to do otherwise. When they are challenged for specific charges and a demand to back up the insinuations substantially they sneak out through very small holes, and bring up again at some new point with another contemptible insinuation or slander. We have watched the gambols of these dwarfs many times with amusement and interest."

"Put it in the DEMOCRAT."

GOODY, HERE COMES

The EVENING DEMOCRAT.

"I would earnestly advise them for their good to order this paper to be punctually served up and to be looked upon as a part of the tea equipage."—ADDISON.

THE "oldest inhabitant" can only liken this season to that of 1844.

IF THESE heavy rains continue a month or two longer corn will be king next winter.

THE bolting convention in New York is opposed to free coinage of silver. Of course it is.

CLEVELAND's friends in New York yesterday injured his chances a great deal more than his enemies did in February.

EVERY public highway in Pettis county is a standing argument in favor of road improvement. The heavy and continued rains this season have kept the roads at their worst for months.

THE St. Louis grand jury seems to "have it in" for "de push." It would be a great thing for Missouri if a few hundred of these rascals could be landed in the penitentiary, however demoralizing their presence might be to the convicts.

CONGRESSMAN WILSON's friends hanged Editor Cochran in effigy. But then Editor Cochran's friends defeated Congressman Wilson for re-nomination, and thus honors are a great deal more than even, and, as usual, the odds are in favor of the editor.

THE fact that a nomination and a defeat would kill Blaine does not affect the men who are booming him for the presidency. They are playing a desperate game for big stakes, and the Plumed Knight is merely an instrument in their hands to down Harrison.

THERE is a great deal of the brute and savage in civilized, educated man, as was shown in London the other day when two thousand of the cream of "the sporting circles" paid $125 each for the privilege of seeing a negro and a white man fight like two wild animals.

THE democratic national convention has no time nor energy to waste in the hopeless and profitless effort to bring about a reconciliation between the mugwumps and spoilsmen in New York. If that state cannot settle its own quarrels it should be ignored. The whole country is tired of its squabbles, and between Wall Street and "the slums" there is not much room for choice.

The Gazette boasts a great deal about being "the only paper in Sedalia that has a daily telegraph service, delivered at 75 cents per month." Judging from this morning's issue the Kansas City Star appears to be charging the Gazette a higher subscription price than it does the balance of its readers. The Gazette's "telegraph" report of the Noland case and its "telegraph" report of "gay parson's" career appear to have been taken bodily from the Star. The Gazette is a great braggart, but it hasn't even the enterprise to disguise its "clipped" telegraph reports. Editor Streitt should "crack his whip over his hired hands."

THE NEW YORK BOLT.

The action of the bolting friends of Cleveland in New York in selecting a contesting delegation to the Chicago convention will not only injure the ex-president's candidacy in the convention but will hurt him in the state in case he secures the nomination.

There are a great many democrats who feel that a certain class of New York independents are endeavoring to subordinate the party to the man, and the action of this class in organizing a bolt will strengthen this impression.

Then as to New York itself, the action of the bolters will increase the bitter feeling between the rival factions and render it more difficult for Cleveland to carry the state if he secures the nomination.

The average party man hates a bolter, and unfortunately there are some features of Cleveland's administration that are calculated to make this particular bolt all the more obnoxious to a large element of the democratic party in New York—an element that did not support him with much enthusiasm in 1888.

Hill's chances, however, are by no means improved by the action of the Syracuse convention. While he is probably the most popular man in New York, he is an object of distrust to many democrats in every section of the country, and, whether the antagonism to him is based upon sound reason or not, still it exists and eliminates him from the list of possible candidates.

The most careful observers are not ready to admit that Cleveland cannot be elected, but the feeling is growing, and will be increased by the action of the bolters' convention in New York, that he is by no means the strongest candidate that the democracy can name.

"COURT house rings" do not come into existence or perpetuate their leases by nominations made at primary elections. These slimy creatures are the products of midnight caucuses and packed conventions. A party that is going to serve the people is not afraid to trust the people, but a party that is afraid to permit its members to meet the candidates, discuss their merits and select the best equipped by a free and open election, is the party that is likely to produce court house rings if successful.

TALK about "court house rings," that is one industry that has collapsed since the radicals were driven from power in this state twenty years ago. Those were the days of "court house rings" sure enough; those were the days when ringsters grew fat and bold and held office against the wishes of the voters, burned ballots that were honestly cast against them and snapped their fingers at decency generally.

CLEVELAND's friends says he is paying more attention to Little Ruth than to politics. Democrats demand of their presidential candidate something more than the distinguished honor of being permitted to use his name, and if he cannot tear himself away from Little Ruth long enough to advise his friends against a suicidal course he will not be especially serviceable in the campaign.

THE people of Missouri having tried republican rule once, it will be a century before they return to it again. The horrors are still fresh in the minds of intelligent men, and in many of the counties the work of paying off the bonded debt saddled upon the people by fraud and corruption has not yet been finished.

ALL the candidates for governor favor good roads. Everybody else agrees with the candidates on this proposition, too.

THE result of the Noland trial is very distasteful to that class of partisan republicans who care not what happens just so there are some offices to be distributed among the faithful. They hoped to see Noland acquitted, and then they would have rent the air with howls and curses against the democracy. They feel the loss of campaign material.

CLEVELAND's chances at Chicago are at least as good as Harrison's at Minneapolis.

VEST'S OPINION.

He Thinks Cleveland Not Responsible for the Bolting Convention.

The Washington correspondence of the Republic gives the following as Senator Vest's opinion concerning Cleveland's relation to the Syracuse convention:

"There is no doubt that the elements opposed to the nomination of Cleveland are pleased over the resolutions of the Syracuse gathering. Some of Mr. Cleveland's friends, but not all of them by any means, attempt to excuse the Syracuse people on the ground that the only way they could make themselves heard at Chicago was through the protesting delegation. Others of Mr. Cleveland's friends argue that the ex-president is not responsible for the Syracuse convention. Senator Vest is one of these. The Missouri senator was over at New York about ten days ago, and had a talk with the ex-president. The senator said to the Republic correspondent today that Mr. Cleveland informed him that he had nothing at all to do with the Syracuse convention, had no hand, act or part in it, and the first that he knew of it was when he was informed by a friend with whom he was taking a drive through the streets of New Orleans. He had been down in Louisiana hunting with Joseph Jefferson when the February convention convened. On his return home he stopped in New Orleans and was driven through the city by a friend, and was then informed that his friends had called another convention to be held in May. Mr. Cleveland told Mr. Vest that he was taking very little interest in politics anyway; that he was devoting his chief attention to his wife and daughter and the practice of his profession, and took more interest in little Ruth than he did in any turn on the political horoscope. It is Mr. Vest's opinion that Mr. Cleveland should not be held responsible for the Syracuse convention. Mr. Vest thinks that Cleveland will be nominated."

A CURIOSITY.

Ye Old-Fashioned Bill of Lading of Ye Bateauemen a Hundred Years Ago.

The following document is on file among a number of curious and valuable papers in the archives of the Missouri Historical society. The original is in the French language:

"I, the undersigned, master of the boat called the Resource, acknowledge to have received on board my boat, consigned to the government of New Orleans, seventeen bundles of shaved deer skins, weighing, altogether, seventeen hundred and sixty-nine pounds and one-half pound; another bundle containing sixty-five red deer skins with the hair on, also a negro named James, a negress called Mary, a little negro called Pelagie, another negro child named Mary Louise, the whole belonging to the estate of the deceased William Derousselle, and which I bind myself to deliver on my arrival at the said city of New Orleans on being paid for the freight of the eighteen bundles, 74 livres, 7 sols and 6 deniers; and for the passage of the slaves the price that shall be allowed me at said place—excepting, nevertheless, the perils and risks of the voyage, and without being responsible for the death or escape of said slaves. In witness hereof, I have given the present in duplicate, one of which being complied with, the other shall be void.

—RAPICAULS.

"STE. GEMEVEVE, Feb. 19, 1781." A livre is about 20 cents of our money. Peltry was the currency of the country. Considering the times, Mr. Rapicauls was quite moderate in his charges, a little over 80 cents per 100 pounds for dried skins. Probably he had no experience in transporting negroes little and big, and did not know how much to charge and left it to the sense of justice of the consignee.

An Unhonored Prophet.

From the New York Evening Post. Undiluted McKinleyism is by no means likely to be the battle cry of the republican party in the approaching campaign. If it were to be why should not McKinley himself be chosen to proclaim it? He could sound it forth on the truest pitch, and is entirely willing to do so; yet, with all the talk of "booms," scarcely a word is said about one for McKinley.

FREAKS OF THE CYCLONE.

Lawyer George, Just From Wellington, Relates Some Singular Circumstances.

From the Kansas City Star.

Thomas George of George & Lowe, lawyers in the New York Life building, returned this morning from Wellington, Kan. He relates some remarkable stories of the cyclone that wrecked that city Friday night. A young woman was writing a letter in the second story of her father's house, and a moment after the storm broke she was standing in the school yard, three blocks away, uninjured, but not alone. A young man whom she knew came sailing through the air and alighted near by. He had sought shelter in a restaurant a quarter of a mile away and had sailed through the air without injury. A refrigerator filled with three dozen eggs, numerous bottles from Kansas City, and some butter and vegetables was found in the cellar after the storm, upright, without anything inside broken. Before the storm it was in the dining-room up stairs, and though the house had been blown away, the floor remained, and the only way for the refrigerator to get to the cellar was to walk down stairs and go through the door. There are plenty of people who will swear that it was upstairs before the storm and down cellar afterward.

ANOTHER TWISTER.

This Time It Strikes Near Independence, Kan.

AND DEMOLISHES A STONE DWELLING.

Eight Persons in the House and Two of Them Were Killed—Floods in Indiana Have Caused Great Damage to Property—Three Lives Lost.

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., June 1.—At 8 o'clock Monday night a tornado formed about four miles east of this city and struck the stone house of James Sullivan, utterly demolishing it.

In the house at the time were eight people and two of these were crushed out of all semblance to human beings. These were: Mrs. Lucy M. Cecil. A four-year-old child of Mr. Sullivan.

Mrs. Sullivan was taken unconscious from the ruins, and on recovering it was found that she was badly hurt. She immediately asked for her baby, and upon being told that it was still in the house she crawled on her hands and knees into the ruins and brought the infant out. It was sound asleep and unhurt.

The other members of the family were considerably bruised and would undoubtedly have been killed had it not been for the effective work of Mr. John Anderson, who lives just across the road from the house. His house was untouched by the storm, and when he discovered what had been done to the Sullivan residence he at once began to work clearing away the debris and succeeded in getting to the injured people and caring for them before they were suffocated.

The tornado appears to have formed directly at that place and expended its entire fury and strength on this one house, for no other damage has been heard of from it.

The house was a two-story dwelling, built of stone, and was considered one of the most solid and substantial houses in the county.

FLOODS IN INDIANA. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 1.—The floods in Indianapolis and vicinity, caused by the heavy rains of Monday, have caused the loss of at least three lives. Carl Weaver, aged 9, was the first victim, and he was drowned while catching driftwood in Fall creek.

John Henderson and his 6-year-old son were also drowned by the slipping away of part of the bank. Many houses in the lower portions of the city are flooded. The oil tank used by Kingan & Co. for holding their fuel supply was undermined and toppled over. Its contents, 10,000 barrels of oil, were saved.

Reports from all over the state show that bridges have been washed away and much other damage done. The tremendous rains of the past six weeks have pretty nearly submerged the entire country around Wabash. All streams are now out of their banks and flooding thousands of acres of lands. The Wabash river, as a consequence, is higher than it has been in a decade.

The lowlands are covered and the corn and wheat crops are destroyed. The water is up about several manufacturing establishments, which have been compelled to shut down, and in some cases to cut their belts to save them.

The big levee on the Salamonie river, at Largo, gave way yesterday afternoon, inundating the surrounding country, and both the Big Four and Wabash railroads are having serious trouble.

On the former there are five washouts, one at Rays, another at Jonesboro, where 600 feet of embankment is gone. At Summitville, at Fall creek and Markleville the track has been carried away. Freight trains are not moving and passenger trains are transferring. Telegraph wires are down in every direction. Last night the Wabash river was rising at the rate of two inches an hour.

FORTY-SIX ROUNDS.

Encounter Between the Murphys at San Francisco and the Finish Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Billy Murphy, of New Zealand, and Johnny Murphy, of Boston, fought to a finish at the Pacific Athletic club last night for a $1,250 purse. Johnny Murphy, who is the boxing instructor of Harvard college, was something of an unknown quantity here, it being his first battle on the coast and the betting favored his namesake at odds of 20 to 12. Billy's victories over Johnnie Griffin and Ike Weir and the memorable draw with Frank Murphy, of England, in which an Australian broke an arm, being still fresh in the minds of the sports. Moreover Johnnie Murphy was believed to be handicapped in everything but weight and pluck. The men have been carefully trained to the 116 pounds limit.

Several preliminaries preceded the contest. Alec Greggains and Dan Fitzpatrick seconded the Bostonian, and Martin Murphy and Sol Smith seconded Billy Murphy. Mike Sullivan was the referee. Time was called at 9:25.

Billy scored the first blow with the long left in the wind, which he repeated a few seconds later, Johnny essaying to counter. The Australian looked like a full grown man beside the pigmy. He scored a left in the wind and caught a left on the chin, but a long swing landed on Johnnie's chin and he staggered, slipping to the floor. The second clip near the end of the round sent John spinning. Billy's long left now looked like an unsurmountable obstacle for the Bostonian.

At the end of the forty-sixth round both men were severely punished. The referee announced that the fight would be postponed until June 10. The men demurred to this and the battle will be resumed to-night.

Alaska's Delegates.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., June 1.—Among the passengers on the steamer from Alaska were Thomas S. Knowell and Collector of Customs E. T. Harth, who were elected from the territory of Alaska to the republican convention.

THE ASSEMBLY AT AN END.

The Presbyterian Deliberative Body at Portland, Ore., Adjourned Since Die.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1.—Yesterday found the great issues in the Presbyterian church settled. The only echoes heard were a protest of R. H. Agnew, of Philadelphia, and others, that the action taken in the Briggs case was unconstitutional; the protest of Dr. Sprague and numerous other commissioners who consider that an evil precedent has been established in giving such wide powers to the committee of prosecution; and in the Union seminary case, the directors of the institution are to be heard from in regard to the proposed arbitration about transfers.

At the afternoon session an earnest plea for deliverance by the assembly against the "practice of lynching negroes in this country" met with decided approval.

Elder McCook withdrew his statement of a year ago concerning donations made to Union seminary upon the basis of its doctrinal soundness, saying that he had no desire to wound the feelings of any member of the family of any such donor, and no intention of characterizing the intent of any donor.

The committee of conference with theological seminaries was announced as follows: Drs. Hays, Young, Blayney, Mutchmore, Moore, Bartlett, Bayley, Holmes, Wilson, Elders McDougall, Cincinnati; McCook, New York; Gray, Chicago; Bonner, Indianapolis; Joy, Detroit; Neglee, Pittsburgh, and Knox, Minneapolis.

An amusing scene occurred upon the introduction of resolutions calling the attention of ministers, elders and students to the evils of the tobacco habit. Finally the resolutions passed with a shout. After the adoption of the usual complimentary vote of thanks the assembly adjourned sine die.

Lynchers in Irons.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 1.—The nine men charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff George T. Williams and the lynching of his insane prisoner, Bright, at Forsyth, were heavily ironed and taken to Forsyth Monday where their preliminary trial began yesterday. The trial will probably last two weeks and startling developments are expected. The authorities claim to have all the facts necessary to convict. They implicate some of the most prominent citizens of Tane county in the murder.

Drowned Near Manchester, Mo.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 1.—William H. Hetzel, the 10-year-old son of W. H. Hetzel, manager of the Lovell Manufacturing Co., 513 East Twelfth street, was drowned yesterday afternoon in the Blue river near Manchester, where he had gone with a boy named Charles Wilson to fish. Somebody has said that he committed suicide, but there is not a single circumstance to warrant such a supposition.

Demented and Almost Naked.

OTTUMWA, Mo., June 1.—Last Saturday a strange man was brought here by a farmer seriously demented and almost in a state of nudity. The town authorities took charge of him. Under medical treatment he has recovered his reason sufficiently to give his name as John Finan, of Warren, Pa. He was taken yesterday to Booneville to the county authorities.

It Did Not Cure But Killed.

WICHITA, Kan., June 1.—George Bradshaw, who had been more or less of a drinking man, began the Hunter-singer treatment for the cure of inebriates last Saturday. This afflicted his brain and after the "shot" he became violently insane. At midnight last night was taken with spasms which lasted four hours. Then came paralysis and death this morning.

Must Keep Off Indian Lands.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Representative English, of New Jersey, has reported from the committee on Indian affairs a bill providing that persons going or remaining upon the lands of the five civilized tribes without authority of the United States or of the Indian nation, shall be subject to fine and imprisonment.

Struck by Lightning.

MEXICO, Mo., June 1.—At Holt Summit, in Callaway county, last night, Mrs. R. A. Wallace was struck by lightning. She is still prostrated, but will live. Her house was torn to pieces.

A most disastrous wreck occurred on the Deadwood Central railway yesterday, two miles from Deadwood, which resulted in the killing of James Scott and the probably fatal injury of William Thomas. At the time of the accident the single coach was filled with passengers who escaped with minor wounds. The accident was caused by a frosty track which caused the train to slide.

ELECTED DELEGATES

Action Taken By the Syracuse, N. Y., Convention.

KNOWN AS "ANTI-SNAP" DEMOCRATS.

The "Mid-Winter" Convention Condemned and Ex-President Cleveland Indorsed—John D. Kerman Presided—Summary of the Resolutions.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 1.—Exactly at noon a shout went up from near the doors of the Alhambra rink, which was crowded, and soon ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, and John D. Kerman came down the aisle, side by side, amid rousing cheers. Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild and Ellery Anderson greeted them. Then Mr. Fairchild, as chairman of the state committee, arose and called the convention to order in a brief address of congratulation on the great attendance and spirit manifested.

John D. Kerman, of Oneida, who was introduced as presiding officer, in his opening words sounded the keynote of the whole address. He said in part:

This convention is a halt on the march to the national democratic convention at Chicago of an army of 200,000 New York democrats, and of as many more enlisted sympathizers. They go to wage war against their disfranchisement in that convention by leaders who have made unwise and crafty use of party machinery for personal ends, and who have overridden time honored customs and usages of the democratic party.

The committee has selected as delegates at large: Alex. Orr, Brooklyn; Frederick S. Coudert, New York; C. F. Bishop, Buffalo; David C. Robinson, Elmira.

The resolutions presented open with a vigorous declaration for reform and denounce the republican party for abuse of power and mismanagement in the past four years. In reference to Mr. Cleveland's administration it says:

Contrasted with the history of extravagance and oppression we recall with ever increasing satisfaction the wise and prudent democratic administration of Grover Cleveland. He pointed out in his message of December 17 the true mission of the democratic party and, through temporary defeat, brought it to the magnificent victories of 1890 and 1891. All this has been remembered by our brethren in other states from the Atlantic to the Pacific and New York, we emphatically declare, shall not be a blank space upon the democratic map.

The McKinley tariff is denounced as excessive and as enacted in the interest of the few for the oppression of the masses, as an inexhaustible source of corruption, a constant menace to free government, which has sapped the independence of industry and induced men to seek to grow rich by official favoritism rather than through their own exertions. An inevitable consequence, it is declared, is that the class in receipt of these vast favors should seek to perpetuate their grasp upon the government by supplying, in practically unlimited amounts, the money with which an electorate may be corrupted and popular government destroyed. The democratic party has no more urgent mission than to destroy a system productive of so much evil, in a spirit of moderation, with due regard to the interest of capital now invested and labor now employed in protected industries.

The resolutions declare for gold and silver money, but against free coinage of silver by the United States alone at the present ratio. Just before the convention adjourned the following resolution was adopted: Whereas, The object of this convention is to correct the wrong done to the democrats of New York by the convention at Albany on February 22 last in the selection of delegates to Chicago, and

Whereas, We realize that the action of the electoral college clearly registers the will of the party as proposed at the national convention and expressed at the polls, now, therefore, better to assure the democratic party that we have no other wish than that the will of the party shall be fairly ascertained and registered by the electoral college, we hereby nominate electors for president and vice president of the United States.

Mr. Fairchild read the list of electors named at the Albany convention in February and the resolution was adopted and the nominations were thus indorsed.

A resolution of thanks to the citizens of Syracuse was adopted for their hospitable treatment of the convention was passed at 5:50 o'clock. Adjourned sine die.

Kansas City Grain.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 31.—The offerings of sample wheat on 'change' today were the largest in six months past and the market was very active. Prices did not differ essentially from those of Saturday, though most traders hardly expected that the offerings could be sold without concessions. At the close a weaker feeling prevailed, but at that time the bulk of the receipts had been disposed of. The market here, up quite stiffly against a cent decline in speculative markets.

Prices were quoted as follows: No. 2 hard wheat, 71 1/2@73; No. 3 hard wheat, 68@70; No. 4 hard wheat, 64@67; rejected hard wheat, 56@58; No. 2 red wheat, 70@80; No. 3 red wheat, 73@75; No. 4 red wheat, 64@73c.

Sales by sample on 'change' on the basis of the Mississippi river: No. 2 hard wheat, 3 cars 70c; No. 3 hard wheat, 2 cars very choice 70c, 5 cars 70c, 9 cars 73c; No. 4 hard wheat, 3 cars choice 55c 75c, 7 cars 55 1/2@57 1/2, 20 cars 51 to 55 1/2, 5 cars 73 1/2, 11 cars 53 1/2@55, 9 cars 72c, 8 cars 52 1/2@54; rejected hard wheat, 1 car very good 72c, 10 cars 40 to 51 1/2@53 1/2@70; No. 2 red wheat, 1 car 85 1/2, 1 car 85c; No. 3 red wheat, 1 car choice 85 1/2, 10 cars 80c; No. 4 soft wheat, 1 car 50 1/2@57, 1 car 70c, 1 car 52 1/2@54, 1 car 70c; No. 3 spring wheat, 2 cars 73 1/2; No. 3 white spring wheat, 7 cars 74c.

The offerings of corn were large but the market took them all without breaking. Chicago May corn sold at a dollar and broke to 40 cents without in the least affecting the market here. Prices were about the same as Saturday. Local buyers paid 41 1/2@42c for No. 2 mixed corn, 45 1/2@46c for No. 2 white corn, discounting No. 3 a half cent. Shippers paid 45 1/2@46c Mississippi river and 47 1/2c Memphis.

Nineteen Sheep Killed by Lightning.

MARSHALL, Mo., June 1.—On Hiram Howard's place north of this city during a heavy storm nineteen sheep under a tree near the house were struck by lightning and instantly killed. The family were also shocked by the stroke, but no one was seriously injured.

Since May 7 there have been 2,450 deaths from cholera at Serinapura, in the Cashmere.

Sir Francis V. Burdett died yesterday. He was a cousin of Baroness Burdett-Coutts.

U. S. HALL FOR CONGRESS.

He Defeats Charles H. Manger in the Democratic Nominating Convention.

CARROLLTON, Mo., June 1.—The convention of the Second congressional district to nominate a candidate for congress was held yesterday. The action of the convention since the primaries in Carroll county, which gave Mr. Hall enough votes to nominate was a foregone conclusion, notwithstanding which there was a large attendance from all the counties in the state to witness his formal nomination by the convention.

The convention, consisting of eighty-one delegates, was called to order by Hon. Phil Branden, of Charlton county, chairman of the congressional committee, who named Hon. John P. Butler as temporary chairman and Messrs. W. L. Beld, of Monroe City, and Perry S. Baden, of Hannibal, as temporary secretaries. The usual committees were appointed after which the convention adjourned to 1:30 o'clock.

The convention met at 1:30 pursuant to adjournment and effected a permanent organization by the election of Ralph P. Lozier, of Carrollton, chairman and F. F. Clapp, of Milan, secretary. After the reports of the committees had been received the convention proceeded to the nomination of congressman. Hon. U. S. Hall, C. H. Mansur and E. M. Harber were placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted—Hall 80, Mansur 25, Harber 5. Mr. Hall having received a majority of the votes was declared the nominee of the convention, and on motion of a delegate from Livingston county his nomination was made unanimous.

The following congressional committees were elected for the ensuing two years: Carroll, J. N. Cunningham; Charlton, John Knappenberger; Grundy, E. M. Harber; Linn, H. J. Wigginton; Livingston, S. J. Miller; Monroe, F. P. Vaughan; Randolph, James L. Hammett; Sullivan, Jacob Snyder.

On motion Messrs. Hall, Mansur and Harber addressed the convention, after which it adjourned.

EXPLOSION OF MINE GAS.

It Caused the Death of One Man and Nine Others Injured.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 1.—An explosion of mine gas yesterday at the Moccannaua colliery of the West End Coal Co., which is located about twenty miles below this city, resulted in the death of one man, the fatal injury of another and the serious injury of eight others.

The dead man is John Protheria, fire boss, aged 45 years. He leaves a wife and four children. John Walters, unmarried, 21 years old, was fatally injured. Henry Ritter, aged 47, was seriously burned and will probably die. He has a wife and large family. Charles Ritter, a brother of Henry, aged 20 years, unmarried, burned about the head and body; Wallace Detrick, 21 years old, ribs broken and injured internally; Peter Zombis, aged 37, side and shoulder badly mangled; H. M. Everhart, 41 years, burned, married; Fred Everhart, 17 years, badly burned; William Hopper, 30 years, very badly injured and recovery doubtful, married; Frank Detrick, burned.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. There were few men at work in the mine at the time as the foreman was on a tour of inspection work and they could not go to their chambers before the foreman reported everything favorably. The damage to the colliery is comparatively light.

A PECULIAR SUICIDE.

The Method By Which a Young Lady Ended Her Life.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A peculiar case of suicide was reported in Brooklyn yesterday. It was that of Miss Lillian Norfolk, one of the handsomest, most talented and wealthy young ladies on Long island. Her maid entered the bath room, adjoining her mistress' bedroom and was horror stricken at the sight presented to her gaze. In the bath tub, which was filled with water, was the nude body of the young woman. Her hair, yesterday by having fifteen divorces

granted in its courts.Drunkness and general cussedness were the prevailing reasons.Democratic Club Meeting.The Sedalia Democratic club held an interesting meeting last night and several new members were enrolled. The most interesting proceedings was the outlining of the plan for holding a grand state rally
of the democracy in this city early in August. The plan met the universal endorsement of the club.An Enjoyable Trip.Dr. Willis P. King and his es-interesting proceedings. The med-throughout their stay.CATTLEMEN MEET.John R. Gentry Goes From Sedalia to Attend the Convention at Kansas City.John R. Gentry, of Locust Grove farm, is in Kansas City to-day attending the annual meeting of the Missouri State Shorthorn Breeders' association, which convened in the ordinary of the Centropolis hotel last evening. Mr. Gentry expects to make some purchases of fine stock. Among the prominent men present are ex-Governor Glick and Prof. Georgeson, of Manhattan college, both of whom addressed the meeting.The talk of Professor Georgeson was an interesting account of a cattle feeding experiment which he is just concluding. He took to Kansas City yesterday twenty head of fat steers which had been fed in lots of five by four methods. The most successful line of feed was what he termed the "balance rations," consisting of ten pounds of corn meal, five pounds shorts, two pounds bran and oil meal and two pounds oil meal added later, per day.The cattle were weighed every Monday and it was learned that the steers of this class recorded an average gain of three and one-half pounds per day. The lot were sold to the Armour Packing company and will be killed this forenoon in the presence of the professor and several cattlemen who are interested.A Sudden Death.Mrs. Malinda Strange, a worthy sitting in the kitchen door about 10 o'clock in an almost unconscious condition. She was removed to a bed and died shortly afterwards.Coroner Muehl pronounced her death due to heart failure.Deceased was a member of the colored masonic order known as Sharon's Coat No. 10; also of the

A. M. E. church.The funeral will take place to-

WILL BE OPENED.Sedalia Will Open the Ball for the Democracy of Grand Old
Missouri.A number of the enthusiastic democrats of this city have already begun a movement for a grand rally of the democracy of the state to be held in this city early in August.The democratic state ticket will be nominated at Jefferson City on July 19th and as soon thereafter as is thought practicable the formal opening of the campaign will be held in this city.It is the purpose of the gentlemen who are engineering the movement to secure the assistance of the state committee in making the meeting here a state affair.All of the candidates for state offices and for congress will be invited and it is the purpose to secure
one or more of the greatest democratic statesmen and orators from other states.The republican campaign will be opened here on the 27th of July,
and it is altogether likely that the biggest republican meeting ever seen in Sedalia will be the result.This will nerve the democracy to special effort, and it is confidently expected that the August meeting will be the most enthusiastic political gathering ever held west of the Mississippi.Enthusiasm is in the air, and Missouri democrats are on their mettle as they have not been in years.The club organizations all over the state will be invited to send representatives, and special trains and cheap transportation will be secured.AN IMMENSE CROWD.The Entertainment Given by the Clerks—Fine Speakers and Delightful Music.The friends of the clerks turned out last night by the hundreds to attend the entertainment at the opera house. Every seat was taken and the standing room in the aisles was completely filled. The gentlemen under whose auspices the event was given, can well feel proud to know that they are held in such esteem by the public of Sedalia.The programme was varied, and was composed of the best talent of the city.Mr. A. W. McKenzie, the master of ceremonies, introduced Rev. A.
R. Cronce, of the First M. E.
church, who made an opening prayer.Mr. McKenzie then explained the object for which the clerks were working, showing wherein it would be an advantage to the clerks without any detriment to their employers. He voiced the sentiment of the majority present when he said that the clerks should be allowed some recreation at evening
during the hot summer months.Miss Elsie Townsley, a handsome little lady, rendered a piano solo in a most charming manner.Mr. Robert Robinson delighted the audience with his powers of ventriloquism.Mayor E. W. Stevens then came forward and made a capital speech.
After discussing the early closing movement, Mayor Stevens did not forget to call the attention of the audience to other enterprises for which our city is working and is in need.There are few young ladies of to-day who possess the graceful accomplishment of playing upon the Italian harp. It was part of the education of our great grandmothers. The duet by Miss May Wallace on the harp and Miss Ida Myers on the piano captivated the listeners who demanded an encore."When the Heart Grows Young,"
was the title of a vocal solo beautifully sung by Mrs. B. F. Boller.Rev. B. F. Boller then delivered an address, which, like all this gentleman gives, was full of sound sense and wisdom.The famous mandolin club then executed a dashing piece and was followed by Prof. Partee, recently of St. Louis, the noted banjoist, who rendered a selection in a most pleasing manner.Attorney Henry Lamm then made a rousing talk, in which he reviewed the needs of Sedalia, praised our improvements and pointed out the lines to be pursued for future progress.A declamation of unusual eloquatory merit was given by Miss Bettie McClure, and was much enjoyed by those present.Mr. Tillman Stark then came forward with a violin solo. Mr.
Stark is a young man of much ambition. He possesses fire, strength of execution and withal a grace and delicacy of conception that givesa soul of expression to whatever he attempts. Mr. Stark is one of the most promising young men in Sedalia, and his friends always consider it a treat to have an opportunity of hearing him.Rev. R. R. Marquis concluded the evening by an address.PERSONALS.E. A. Wilson, of Mexico, is in

VERY ROTTEN.Official Dishonesty on the S. A. & A.
P. Being Brought to the Eyes of the Public.The recent investigations ordered by Judge King, of the Forty-fifth judicial district, into the affairs of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass railway have developed a startling amount of official dishonesty.It is said that during the campaign of 1890 over $20,000 was drawn from the funds of the receivership and used for campaign purposes. It is alleged that said money was falsely reported to the master in chancery as cash balance on hand; that prior to said election a part of the road was ballasted, and the gravel for the same was furnished by Receiver J. S. McNamara from property belonging to him and others at prices far in excess of its value; that other large sums of money belonging to the receivership have been misapplied and covered by false vouchers.A GREAT WORK BASKET.Women Who Carry Pins, Buttons, Etc., in their Mouths."Did you ever notice the insane practice that many women have of putting pins in their mouths?"
queried an old bachelor of a reporter this morning."If I had a wife," continued the
o. b., "I would either put a muzzle upon her or not allow a pin in the house, if she showed any tendency toward this crazy habit. I was coming down town on the street car
this morning when a rather good looking young woman got on. Her skirts were pinned up on all sides
and, as she took them out, one at a time, she pitched them into her mouth like throwing corn into a corn-sheller.—I became nervous and could not sit easy for fear that she would immediately go into paroxysms of agony. She sat demurely rolling her angelic eyes and twisting the pins under tongue. I felt an impulse to shoot her to prevent death from strangulation."The anxiety of the o. b. was not without proper grounds. There is no doubt but what many of the female diseases that so often puzzle
the doctors could be traced back to where the voracious women folks had swallowed a pin. It is a wellknown fact that women often sleep with pins in their mouths.BEAUTY AND FLOWERS.The Marriage of Two Prominent Young Society People This Evening.The marriage of Mr. George Mackey and Miss Bessie Daniel this evening will be an unusually happy affair. The young couple have long pleasure to all who know them to wish that their home will ever be joyable things of life.The ceremony will take place at 8:30 p. m. at the Methodist Episcopal church, south, Rev. M. M.

Pugh, of Kansas City, a prominent
